

LANGUAGE

Abbreviation Dictionary

Directory and search engine for acronyms, abbreviations and initialisms

Acronym Finder

Dictionary of acronyms, abbreviations, and initialisms

Dictionary (Merriam-Webster)

Provides definitions, parts of speech, synonyms, origins of words and rhyming words, as well as a medical dictionary and concise encyclopedia.

Duolingo

Free language learning platform offers many languages on the web, Android, iOS, and Windows. Claims that 34 hours of independent study on Duolingo is the equivalent of one semester of college language class.

Etymology Dictionary

Online etymology dictionary providing origins and derivations of English words. Includes related terms for alternate meanings.

Google Translate

Handspeak

A website that offers demonstrations, vocabulary, and resources for a variety of age groups about American Sign Language.

Idiom Site

Definitions for a limited list of every day idioms in common use.

Omniglot

An online encyclopedia of writing systems and languages.

Pronunciation Dictionary

Online pronunciation reference. Seeks to compile native speaker pronunciations for all the words that exist in the world, including names.

Rhyming Dictionary

Finds rhymes, synonyms, adjectives, and more.

Slang Dictionary

Dictionary is a dictionary of slang words, neologisms, idioms, aphorisms, jargon, informal speech, and figurative usages.

Rosetta Stone

This resource provides a proven language learning immersion method trusted for over 20 years. It is funded by the New Jersey State Library.

The TOEFL Test

Information about the English-language test for study, immigration, and work.

USA Learns

A website that offers free English language learning resources.